

Dear Gruner Meister xxx,

A fellow Gruner Meister, Jennifer Crowley from Folio (USA), developed this idea which we would like to share with you:

Create YOUR PERSONAL Grüner SUCCESS STORY

Yes, ... you have your sales quotas – daily, weekly, monthly! But wouldn't it be a great idea to create your own, very personal success story – with Gruner by LAURENZ V.?

HOW?

Make it your goal to bring one (1) new customer per day. I can tell you: "It is easy!", just make your partners taste the wine(s) – Singing and Charming Gruner alike – and I guarantee you, 9 out of 10 will love it (recently tested this again in Boston, providence myself – wow, what a positive reaction AND orders on the spot!!!)

Make people taste the wine – they will love it.

Thank you & YVS

P.S.: Together with you we've built a lot of momentum around the world during the last 5 years. The prize – in most countries – is already or will be the No.1 selling Gruner in your territory.
