

SOUTH AFRICA – RED WINE

BERGWATER VINEYARDS RESERVE MERLOT 2005

WO Prince Albert Valley

Mariska Schreuder of Bergwater Vineyards was a finalist for Woman Winemaker of the Year in 2007. This 2005 inaugural vintage of their Reserve Merlot is an excellent tribute to this talented winemaker.

MÔRESON PINOTAGE 2006

WO Coastal Region

Môreson's 2006 vintage was chosen for the 2007 ABSA Top 10 Pinotage Competition list.

TASTING NOTE: Benchmark modern style; engaging mulberry/raspberry scents follow through on to dense yet supple palate. Oaked to frame fruit, round tannins. Score – ★★★★★ (out of 5). (Angela Lloyd, John Platter South African Wines, 2008)

THE WINERY OF GOOD HOPE CABERNET SAUVIGNON/MERLOT 2007

WO Stellenbosch

The 2007 vintage is regarded as an exceptionally good one for South Africa. This 60/40 Cab/Merlot blend shows remarkable complexity and elegance with ripe dark fruit, hints of minerals and cedar notes. Enjoy this wine with grilled steak and mushrooms. A terrific value!

AUSTRIA – WHITE WINE

LAURENZ UND SOPHIE SINGING GRÜNER VELTLINER 2007

Niederösterreich

TASTING NOTE: Gruner veltliner is one of the great, but little-known white-wine grapes. Its cultivation is almost entirely confined to Austria, one of the great but little-known wine countries. This dry, steely wine combines impressive tensile strength with deep flavors of pear, cherry, minerals, herbs and a hint of white pepper. (Michael Dresser, The Baltimore Sun, Sept. 10, 2008)

CYPRUS – WHITE WINE

ETKO NEFELI 2007

Lemesos

The Cypriot wine industry has undergone tremendous change in the last twenty years, moving from a focus on quantity to quality. Etko was created in 1844 by Christodoulos Haggipavlu. Nefeli is made from Xynisteri, which is the most common white grape grown on Cyprus. Imagine yourself on a Mediterranean beach with a glass of this refreshing, dry and fruity white.
