

2005 LAURENZ V.

Charming Grüner Veltliner

winereviewonline.com

90 Points

“It's a bit precious, but the name here is right on target, as this wine indeed tastes charming. It has Gruner Veltliner's telltale whiff of pepper in the bouquet, mineral-tinged secondary flavors, and plenty of citrus and apple fruit. Most impressively, it is extremely harmonious, and just plain delicious to drink. As the label says, charming.”

Paul Lukacs, Aug 14, 2007