Laurenz V Singing Grüner Veltliner 2007

Kremstal, Austria

Dry White (Screwcap), 12.0% abv

The V in Laurenz V stands for "five", as project is an offshoot of the Lenz Moser family, run by today's fifth generation. This has delicate, fine waxy tones and crunchy pear fruit aromas. The acidity shimmers across the palate, with plenty of racy, crunchy apple and lemon zest, and hints of minerality in the finish.

Score: 87/100 – £6.99 at Tesco.
